

RACISM. IT STOPS WITH ME

5 September 2014

Welcome to our latest supporter update.

Happy birthday to 'Racism. It Stops With Me'

The 'Racism. It Stops With Me' campaign has now been going for two years! Thanks to all of our supporters for helping make this campaign such a success.

What have you been up to?

It's been another busy month for campaign supporters.

The University of NSW held a public event to announce their support of the campaign, which involved speeches from the deputy Vice-Chancellor and the Race Discrimination Commissioner, together with musical performances from students from Chester Hill High School and a comedic performance by Sam McCool:

Chester Hill High School students with UNSW staff, Jeremy Fernandez, Tim Southommasane and Sam McCool

We're also delighted to welcome Macquarie University and the ACT Government, both of whom also held public events to announce their support:

Tim Soutphommasane with ACT Attorney-General, Simon Corbell and Minister Joy Burch

Would you like to feature in our newsletter or as a case study on our website? Get in touch and let us know what you've been doing to tackle racism and promote the anti-racism message.

Who would you like to see on a campaign poster?

We're updating our campaign posters and are putting a call out for people to tell us who they want to see pledge support for 'It Stops With Me'. We'll collate all the suggestions and approach the top nominees, asking them to be on one of our posters.

So let us know what you think, and spread the word through various networks asking them to share their ideas. Suggestions can be sent to antiracismsecretariat@humanrights.gov.au.

Merchandise

Are you holding an event in support of the campaign? Or would like your staff or students to be walking publicity for the 'It Stops With Me' message? Get in touch to get your hands on some campaign merchandise.

Anti-racism and cultural diversity training

Several supporters have asked for help in finding anti-racism and cultural diversity training providers, so we're creating a list of organisations across Australia that offer these services. If your organisation offers this training, or if you would like to recommend the services of one you know, send us an email and we'll update our list.

Let us know how we can help you!

We've heard that some of you would like more direct contact with us or more support in discussing what you can do as part of the campaign.

It would be helpful if you could take a few seconds to answer some brief questions so we get a better idea of what we can do to assist you.

Until next time!
The campaign team
